Mantoura, P. (2014). Defining a population mental health framework for public health. Montréal, Québec: National Collaborating Centre for Healthy Public Policy. Retrieved from: http://www.ncchpp.ca/553/Publications.ccnpps?id_article=1268

> This framework contributes to supporting the integration of population mental health within public health objectives and mandates across Canada. It frames the notion of population mental health following Kindig and Stoddart's (2003) population health framework. As such it integrates the determinants of mental health, mental health outcomes, and the policies and interventions that aim at improving mental health in the population and reducing inequalities in mental health.

Mantoura, P. (2014). Framework for healthy public policies favouring mental health. Montréal, Québec: National Collaborating Centre for Healthy Public Policy. Retrieved from: http://www.ncchpp.ca/553/Publications.ccnpps?id_article=1203

> This briefing note proposes a framework for healthy public policies favouring mental health (HPP-FMH). The paper defines what is meant by the expression "healthy public policies favouring mental health," presents the determinants of mental health to illustrate the areas where public policies might have the most influence, and concludes with a brief overview of evidence to support HPP-FMH.

National Collaborating Centre for Healthy Public Policy. (2014). Scan of mental health strategies across Canada. [Online tool]. Montréal, Québec: National Collaborating Centre for Healthy Public Policy. Retrieved from: http://www.ncchpp.ca/553/publications.ccnpps?id_article=1257

> This scan was produced as part of a collaborative project to scan the strategies in population mental health that are being developed in Canada.
